Creating A Family Doctrine

Learn about the importance of creating a Family Doctrine based upon your philosophy and use your Family Doctrine to guide family decisions that impact you, your future generations and society at large

- Learn about the differences between the Vanderbilt’s and Rothchild’s. One family perpetuated success while the other squandered.
- Why most cultures have a similar saying “Shirt sleeve to shirt sleeve, clog to clog and rice patty to rice patty” in three generations.
- Create a concise efficient document that expresses your beliefs, feelings and values that embody your family. Your family doctrine will be the corner stone of your family life today and future generations.

Today’s world continues to become more complex, (technology, multicultural, finances and the family). Your family doctrine brings simplicity to the complexity we face everyday helping make major family decisions consistent with your philosophy.
